A record on appeal transferred to this court as filed under seal, shall remain closed to the public while the appeal is pending in this court. However, any document(s) filed by either party in the Court of Appeals (e.g., briefs, appendices, motions) are considered to be public record. Documents filed with the Court of Appeals will be filed under seal only if the Court of Appeals has granted a separate motion requesting that the document(s) be sealed. Court case decisions issued by this court in this or any other matter are a matter of public record.
