Congratulations to the 2008 Trainer Excellence Awards recipients. These exceptional trainers were recognized at the Trainer Excellence Awards luncheon, held on May 14, 2009 at the Arizona Supreme Court, Judicial Education Center. Recipients were honored for their commitment to excellence in their service to the courts.

Each year the Judicial Staff Education Committee (JSEC) reviews peer driven nominations and selects up to seven outstanding trainers based on trainer excellence selection criteria:

2008 TRAINER OF THE YEAR

Dyhanna Anderson, Yavapai County Superior Court

- Demonstrates a command of the subject area (s) taught
- Creates a stimulating and motivating learning environment.
- Works diligently to ensure participants' understanding of the material.
- Demonstrates high self-expectations.
- Exhibits initiative and taking risks.
- Exudes a positive attitude, treating others with respect and demonstrating effective communication skills.

This year's awards luncheon was held during the 2009 Training Coordinator Workshop. Honorable Roxanne Song Ong, COJET Chair and the presiding judge of Phoenix Municipal Court, and Mark Stodola, JSEC Chair, Tempe Municipal Court, Court Administrator presented the awards and congratulated the recipients.

Dyhanna Anderson, Yavapai County Superior Court, Field Trainer and Training Coordinator, was selected 2008 Trainer of the Year. This award is presented to one distinguished trainer from the Arizona Court System who has made an extraordinary contribution to the field of judicial education. Kudos to these outstanding trainers who are moving our courts from "Good to Great".
