Applications Being Accepted
For Two Vacancies on Pima County Superior Court

Applications are being accepted for two vacancies created on the Superior Court in Pima County by the retirement of Judge Terry L. Chandler and Judge Jan E. Kearney.

The Pima County Commission on Trial Court Appointments will review applications, interview selected applicants, and recommend at least three nominees for each vacancy to Governor Jan Brewer, who will appoint the new judges.

Applicants must be at least 30 years old, admitted to practice law in, and a resident of, Arizona for the past five years, and a resident of Pima County for the past year.

Applications can be obtained from the Administrative Office of the Courts, Human Resources Division, 1501 W. Washington, Suite 221, Phoenix; by calling (602) 452-3311; by sending an electronic mail request to: jnc@courts.az.gov; or at the Judicial Department website: <http://azcourts.gov/jnc>.

The original completed application and 5 copies must be returned to the Administrative Office of the Courts, Human Resources Division, 1501 W. Washington, Suite 221, Phoenix, AZ, 85007, by 3:00 p.m. on Monday, March 4, 2013.

Applicants for the recent vacancy in Pima County created by appointment of Judge Michael Miller to Division Two of the Court of Appeals do NOT need to reapply to be considered for the new vacancies.

The Commission may, at its discretion, use the applications filed for these vacancies to nominate candidates for any additional vacancies known to the Commission before the screening meeting for these vacancies is held.

All meetings of the Pima County Commission on Trial Court Appointments are open to the public. Meeting dates will be announced when they become available.

The new judge will be paid $145,000 annually.
