ARIZONA SUPREME COURT LAUNCHES NEW WEB PAGE FOR COURT WATCHERS

Monday, September 9, 2013 – At the direction of Chief Justice Rebecca White Berch and Vice Chief Justice Scott Bales, the Clerk of the Arizona Supreme Court created a new web page to provide a list of cases currently before the state’s highest court.

This new page makes it easy for litigants, attorneys, media, and others to find information about cases before the Supreme Court.

“We hope that this page will be a helpful tool for people who follow cases before the Arizona Supreme Court,” stated Clerk of the Court Janet Johnson. “The website now provides the public an easily accessible view of the cases before the Court.”

Users may visit the new page at
