Justice Timmer Earns Award from Arizona Association of Defense Counsel

PHOENIX – Arizona Supreme Court Justice Ann A. Scott Timmer has been honored with the Judicial Excellence Award by the Arizona Association of Defense Counsel. The award honors those epitomizing the highest standards of judicial integrity and professionalism.

Alison R. Christian, Esq. from the law firm of Christian, Dichter & Sluga nominated Justice Timmer for the award. Ms. Christian was inspired by Justice Timmer after hearing her speak at the Arizona Women’s Leadership Forum Annual Symposium several years ago. Justice Timmer’s message related to courage in the face of adversity, determination, and compassion. Her words stayed with Ms. Christian and often help her maintain perspective in this profession.

“Justice Timmer is an example of an extraordinary woman who paved the way for other women. I want to recognize her efforts and make sure she knows how much it is appreciated,” Ms. Christian remarked.

The award was presented at a December 3 event. The Arizona Association of Defense Counsel is a non-profit organization established in 1965 to serve and support defense attorneys who primarily practice in civil defense litigation. According to its website www.azadc.org, “AADC is dedicated to the education of its members and the judiciary and increasing community awareness of positive aspects of the legal profession.”

Justice Timmer is the second person to receive the Judicial Excellence Award. Judge John Gemmill of Division 1 of the Arizona Court of Appeals earned the award last year.
