Association of Women Executives in Corrections Honors Director of Adult Probation Services

PHOENIX – Kathy Waters, Director of Adult Probation Services for the Arizona Administration Office of the Courts received the 2018 Susan M. Hunter Award from the Association of Women Executives in Corrections (AWEC) at its annual conference.

The Award is in honor of Susan M. Hunter who was the Prison's Division Chief at the National Institute of Corrections and was instrumental in creating the Executive Women's Leadership Program. The Award recognizes women who mentor, promote, and develop women in the corrections field.

Waters is a charter member of the Association of Women Executives in Corrections, a Past President and currently serves as the Chair of the National Voice Committee for AWEC. In 2015, she received the Supreme Court's Strategic Agenda Award for her efforts in implementing Evidence Based Pretrial Services in Arizona. In June 2016, she was awarded the Courts Administration of Justice Award recognizing her contributions and impacts to Arizona Probation and the Courts over a long period of time.
