O R D E R

Petitioner Stevenson Reid Penner's verified Petition for Review notes that the Committee on Examinations has granted a request for accommodations for the February 2018 Uniform Bar Examination; he asks for additional accommodations.

Rule 35(b)(5) of the Rules of the Supreme Court provides for accommodations to the extent such accommodations are reasonable, consistent with the nature and purpose of the examination, and necessitated by the applicant's disability. The Rule also requires supporting documentation.

The Court has reviewed the Petition for Review and Petitioner's supporting documents. The Court has also reviewed the Committee's Response and supporting exhibits including the December 17, 2017 letter from Empirical Resources LLC. Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED denying the Petition for Review.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED sealing the Petition for Review and all Petitioner's exhibits. It is further ordered redacting paragraphs 9 and 11 through 17 of the Committee's Response and sealing Exhibits 2 and 3 of the Committee's Response.

DATED this 13th day of February, 2018.
