)

The Arizona Code of Judicial Administration provides that the director or deputy director may, if appropriate, refer a complaint to another state agency or entity with jurisdiction, on determination that the complaint is outside the jurisdiction of this section, the program specific section and the laws applicable to the program [ACJA 7-201(H)(2)].

Now, therefore, the above captioned complaint against a Defensive Driving Program certificate holder alleging misconduct in the installation and operation of an ignition interlock device, that being under the authority of the Motor Vehicle Division, Arizona Department of Transportation and the Arizona Department of Public Safety, and finding that disclosure of information regarding this complaint being in the best interest of the public and not outweighed by any other interest and not contrary to law,

IT IS DIRECTED that the information contained in this complaint be provided to the Motor Vehicle Division, Arizona Department of Transportation and the Arizona Department of Public Safety for their investigation.

Dated this 9th day of April, 2004.

DAVID K. BYERS
Administrative Director of the Courts
