Question from Tyler Technologies:

Question 1: Would the AOC consider a transaction-fee based proposal as opposed to a licensed or purchased model? Under this model the system is implemented, maintained, and supported entirely by the vendor and paid for thru the collection of a small transaction fee added to each filing. There is no cost to the AOC or individual courts under a transaction-fee based approach.

Answer 1: Pursuant to the RFP, the AOC will not consider a transaction fee-based proposal as opposed to a licensed or purchased model.
