

 You must contact the court that holds jurisdiction over your citation and request the extension for that court. The contact information for the jurisdictional court can be found on your copy of the citation. The Arizona Supreme Court does not grant traffic citation extensions. Only the court holding jurisdiction has the authority to grant extensions.**