Supplementary Attachment

Explanation for Question #17: I was employed overseas during the 2010 election and did not consider myself informed enough to vote in said election. In 2011, it came to my knowledge that I was still registered to vote in Coconino County, and my registration to Maricopa County was less than 29 days before the election, thus I was ineligible to vote in this year's election.

Statement of Interest

I have been an Arizona resident all of my life. In fact, I consider myself a native and proud son of the State of Arizona. Going along with that, I draw my base identity from the fact that I am a native Arizonan and Phoenician. I have watched this city and state grow by leaps and bounds, and have seen the prizes and problems this rapid growth has brought to Arizona. I want to serve on the Independent Redistricting Commission so that I can include myself in the process of making sure that the most important element in our democratic system, the voting and election process, remains equitable and unbiased. The welfare and prestige of my native land is of the utmost importance to me, and I believe that serving on this commission will allow me to provide valuable opportunities to help and foster a safe and trusting relationship between constituents, candidates, elected officials, and appointees. I make my pledge now that if I am selected to join the other commission members, I will execute my duties faithfully and with a blind eye to the concerns of political society, professional interests, and personal biases.
