RE: Filing of 2nd Complaint against [redacted]

JAN 10 2007 Judge [redacted]

Court,

Superior

January 4, 2007

Dear Commission: CJC-07-012

On [redacted] I filed a motion for Judge [redacted] to correct his judicial errors

Rule 91(e) of the Supreme Ct. (on Superior Court administration) mandates that a determination of matters be answered within 60 days. It will be 30 days past that by the time you receive this complaint and still he has not made a ruling or issued an order directing me how to proceed.

I further believe Judge [redacted] is having ex parte communications (whether oral, written, telephonic or computer generated) with the [redacted] County Attorneys office about my case without my knowledge or consent. I am without any counsel to represent me so I am my own counsel and must receive notice and be present when these communications take place. This is very disquieting to me and I hope your office will look into this and take this filed complaint seriously

Thank you
