This Judge grossly violated my right under the US Constitution to a speedy trial by not allowing me to speak and allowing time to be wasted & me kept prisoner for 9 1/2 months from would not allow me to speak I made several attempts to speak with him and was only successful once. I tried to speak to him to let him know I demanded a speedy trial & to let him know attorneys were waiting for me without my permission. One time he replied to me that I was represented by council & I should shut up & let them speak for me so that I didn't say anything to incriminate myself.

The one time I got to speak to him I just stood up & objected to my attorney waiting time & once again requested a speedy trial, the judge himself overruled me & he then himself wasted more time calling it Extermination circumstances.

1st I was arrested on [redacted] why did this judge wait 49 days before appointing me an attorney on [redacted] By this time I had lost my job & made it impossible to get a bond reduction.

2nd Why was my bond set at [redacted] Now Violated No priors. You know a woman I went to court with attempted to murder her husband, she tried to shoot him [redacted] her bond was set @ [redacted]

3rd If this judge waited time on my case it was without my permission, I only wanted time three 30 days when I got my attorney [redacted] and I agreed to waive time until sentencing on [redacted] as long as I was released within 24 hours & it took 6 days

4 It's my complaint this judge violated my right to a speedy trial "which I never even wanted" by taking so long to appoint me an attorney and at my opinion he was in correspondence with the prosecution & not reducing my bond.
