Judge: No. 1312110569B

ORDER

The commission reviewed the complaint filed in this matter and found no ethical misconduct on the part of the judge. The issue raised is legal or appellate in nature, and the more appropriate remedy would have been to appeal the judge's decision to a court with proper jurisdiction.

Dated: August 1, 2007.

On Commissioner violated my Constitutional Rights. On the Court of Record, I asked if her courtroom was operating under the Constitution of the United States of America. She then said "I don't have to answer that question." Then I told her that the Sixth Amendment of the Constitution grants me the right to ask the court the nature of the action against me and upon my request the court has the duty to answer. I have a question of the nature of the action against me. She then told me no that she does not have to answer that either. I then asked by what authority does she not have to answer my questions. She just said I could say anything on the record. I then stated for the record that I am not a citizen of the State of Arizona and not a citizen of I am a American National Sovereign of the Republic of the continental United States of America. There for this court is not operating under any jurisdictions of the Constitution of the United States of America. I ask this court to dismiss the case against me for the courts lack of jurisdiction. She then stated file with your attorney. I said I don't want an attorney; that I am myself. She then had the deputies removed me from court. There by conducting a criminal action against me, under a secret jurisdiction only known to her court room and licensed attorneys. There by Denieing me the right to defend myself?????? Where can I get Justice.
