To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you on behalf of my father's request. My father has limited English Abilities in English and doesn't understand law proceedings and how to present his evidence. On 8/9/07 my father had three hearings on injunction against harassment. My father asked the judicial commissioner to allow me, his son, to translate for him in his primary language so that he can understand better on whats happening, the commissioner denied him that request. Then my father told her that he had taped evidence and tried to Use it to prove his case, but the commissioner told him that if he didn't bring a tape player he cannot use it, she also told him that courts do not furnish tape players. Then my Father asked her for extension on the last case to be heard, she denied him without asking for his reason. My father struggled throughout all three cases. The commissioner Lisa Vandenberg throughout the three cases didn't allow my father to present his evidence fairly. I was a witness to all her civil rights violations. I saw through her body language and the way she acted that my father had no chance in a fair trial. My father Was the only foreigner there and was grilled unfairly for things he did not do. My father Feels that she violated his civil rights. My father feels she was biased. At this point we would like to request a fair rehearing on all three cases by a judge with me as his translator. Please call us if you have any questions before your decision on this matter.
