Through out my entire civil case has been more than unfair to me (The Defendant). Every motion I have filed in this case has been denied by Judge even though the Plaintiff in my case fails to file responses to those motions, even after being ordered by Judge to do so.
IF a Judge orders someone to file a response to a motion and that person does not do it then shouldn't the relief be granted to the party that filed the motion?

At a Pre-Trial Conference Judge told the Plaintiff's Attorney that they needed to file a response to the Defendant's motion to Dismiss that was filed but the Plaintiff's Attorney failed to do so and the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss was Denied. on I filed another motion to Dismiss and that motion was returned to me by Judge with a hand written note on it that said "Duplicate, already ruled on (Denied How could a Motion that was filed on have already been denied on ?

Judge is not reading motions that have been filed by me and is simply denying them without reason. The fact that she returned a motion filed on saying that it was denied on is proof of this fact.

These actions could cause a negative impact on my case as well as my reputation.

Thank You
