

AUG 28 2008

an Order of Protection was filed with Commissioner by the father of in which was interviewed by the aforementioned Commissioner.
No other evidence was presented by father except other vague accusations and avowal of non-existent "proof". This matter has totally devastated me, mother I believe that the Court has furthered father's exploitation of daughter in his quest for sole legal custody by teaching daughter to lie thereby placing her in the middle of his fight with mother.

For over the past four years, father has filed over 21 complaints with CPS/ Police. Each report has been unsubstantiated including the allegations of sexual manipulation (now by 3 males including my now 12 year old son), because they are utterly and completely false, not to mention the fact that there has never been any evidence to support any of his claims!!!
Judge agreed with Child's Best Interest Attorney that father video-taping daughter claiming that she has been sexually manipulated and suffocated by pillow, with father prodding her to the correct answers, is not in the child's best interest and to cease immediately. Father still attempts to video-tape daughter with mother at exchanges. But now father chooses to have daughter "speak for herself" not only to the Police, but also to the doctor's at Phoenix Children's Hospital and now to the Courts. has told me that father makes her lie to and about mother and that he promises her toys, puppies, horses and trips to Disney World if she does what he says. The Court has fallen short in protecting by allowing father to continue to exploit her in his effort to remove me from life. After living for 3 months in a domestic abuse shelter, in my first conversation with father he promised to get sole custody of and that I wouldn't have any parenting time. The Court is enabling father to pursue his threat against me by empowering father to continue to manipulate my sweet little girl with lies and no evidence to support his morbid claims. It is unconscionable that the Court perpetuates this horrible wrong committed against my daughter by allowing father to advance his agenda unrestrained by common sense in the court system Isn't the Court supposed to protect the innocent? Why is the Court interrogating a 5 year old? How long will it take for the Court to defend my daughter from the manipulation of her father when they allow him to place her in a position where she does what father wants so she can please him? I am respectfully begging the Court to cease allowing father to exploit my sweet little girl who only wants both parents to love her.

Please see attached documentation of previous allegations against myself (mother) and brother (then 10yrs old) for the past 2 years.