Dear Sir or Madam;

NOV 13 2008

I wish to file a formal complaint against at

arainment stated in open court

Discovery would be made at Pre-Trial conference which was not done, he also stated we would discuss the case, which was not done. Proscutor stated it would be mailed to me. the rules of law I believe states that it should be turned over. I filed a motion to dissmis on this; which was denied. stated that even though it was mailed I should have had enough time to prepare a defense.

allowed testimony from an officer that she saw pictures of my dog taken by ruddy; which was never mentioned anywhere in discovery or shown in court. At one point I asked about testimony and was told I should have filed a motion to get this; I did nothing about. If this is the way you run your courts then you should start selling Peanuts and Cotton candy. I worked for 29 years as Deputy Sheriff in the courts of never seen anything as wrong as he does in court.
