I appeared in Court regarding an illegal left turn on 3/17/09 at about 7:20 in the AM. I didn't make an illegal turn and the ticket was not justified. I have written Judge two letters asking for my money back.

I walked into the courtroom carrying a rather large purse. The judge called me Sir - I was rather shocked. She proceeded on to ask me how to pronounce my name + if there was a y in the last name.

After the officer spoke she said in a very pussy voice - "anything else".

I called office + they told me to call the Commission on Judicial Conduct.

This lady is a poor excuse for a person in charge. It's as if she didn't even listen to me. I have two letters out regarding the officer lying underneath - one to the Police Dept. and one to the Court in.

This was a ticket that should never have been. The judge never really gave me a chance. I have lived in AZ. 25 yrs. and have never had a ticket. My license no is
