First of all I applied for a change of Judges on April 22nd. She denied my request.

Second I applied for a rescheduling of my case. I didn't hear any reply for 2 days I applied on the 23rd of April.

The Case was set for April 24th. She went ahead and had the case without me. She ruled in favor of the bank.

I had arbitration back in February the ruling was in favor of the bank. I thought this was a wrong decision.

I filed for appeal, and the case was set for April 24th.

I wanted to have my case said by another judge. I had a case before her in March for an eviction from an apartment. She ruled against me.

I felt that I wouldn't have a fair chance with her doing this case.

In the apartment case, the manager perjured herself several times.
