9137 M in this case, the violations of law are far from technical, "It requires 137 ru only basic instincts of fairness to realize that one should not judge cases involving personal friends, enemies, or debtors". In le feck supra, Also, "a judge of a particular court should never preside over a matter involving another judge from the same circuit." Wilson v. Mc Neely, 670 S.E. 2d. 486. (Ga. App. 2008). Quoating from a Georgia Judicial Qualification Commission opinic the court stated that "even without a showing of actual bias, prejudice or Unfairness, and regulardless of the merits or untimeliness of a Motion To Recus end it is inappropriate for any trial court judge to the same or preside in any action where in one of the parties holds a judicial office on the Same or any other court which sits in the same circuit."
