I am writing this letter because I feel the Judge I have (Bass 2009-) was very unprofessional with what he had said in court June 28th 2011. I have been clean and sober for almost five years (10/26/06) and his biological mom supposedly for two years.

Judge had said that with my drug history and his moms drug history that he is going to end up use drugs. I had told him that isn't going to happen with me around. The judge also said that I'm going to end up relapsing and use drugs again. I told him that I have no desire to use drugs in my life ever again. If I did I would lose my son, my family, & my fiance. I wouldn't wanna lose what I have worked so for. The judge also had said if there was anyone in this court room who hasn't done drugs before raise your hand and fiance had raised her hand and he said you can put your hand down. She has never done drugs in her life. I feel the Judge was very unprofessional and rude toward me. I had talked to my attorney Laura Zeman-Mullen and I had told her what he had said and she told me to write to the Commissioner of Judicial Conduct.

Sincerely _____
