

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 13-049

Judge:	No. 0360014629A
Complainant:	No. 0360014629B

ORDER

The complainant alleged a justice of the peace demonstrated a pattern of gender bias against men in domestic violence related proceedings.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. The commission approved sending the judge a private warning regarding Rules 1.3 and 3.7(A)(6)(a) of the Code. The complaint is dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(b) and 23(a).

Dated: August 21, 2013.

Dear Commission Investigator,

The Men's Rights Group of Arizona is growing extremely concerned about the gender bias in the . Sometime in December 2012 when the . story we have been bombarded with 23 complaints against ranging from nepotism to complete bias. Our organization is speaking out against , based on her 30 years of open discrimination against male victims of domestic violence.

recent case only deepens our belief cannot or will not hear a case based on its merit. Convictions are made based on how they can further her political career. Not only is this an issue for men but recently women are also being caught up in the domestic violence power grab. Recently we received a report had granted an order of protection year after year for a family member to harass her former boyfriend. Now these orders are being issues on her former boyfriend new wife. case is not unique, it is simply the most documented based on his upcoming book.

For your information, we have been contacting the demanding case reviews of all domestic violence cases including . In many of these cases have never been fully investigated either by the charging officer or by the County Attorney. Essentially, men (and some women) charged with domestic violence receive a one way ticket to a conviction and a blemished record. In the , cases with no evidence are being rammed through the court system and convictions are granted in at least 99% of all trials.

Anyone who is charged in the for domestic violence will be found guilty, not based on evidence but for the need to divert funds to supporters. We stand behind and the publishing of his book informing others about the corruption within the is as crooked as a corkscrew and as wicked as Lucifer!
