

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 14-345

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

An anonymous complainant alleged a superior court judge may have fathered a child out of wedlock with a litigant that may have appeared in front of him.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Re:

Dear commission,

I have information that Judge _____ who has worked in several counties from to _____ Courts, is currently assigned in

He is married and his wife lives in _____ area. He has fathered a child with a young female, druggie, from _____ area.

If he wants to cheat on his wife, that's his business. However if he fathered a child with a druggie that came before him in his court, I have a problem with that. I believe that to be an ethical issue, if she came before him in court.
