COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 15-114

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court commissioner did not give him an opportunity to be heard at a protective order hearing.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the commissioner engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the commissioner did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: May 28, 2015

On _____ I was served with an Injunction against harassment order.

1. He complained I tried to follow him to work several times over a _____ period.

I only tried _____ and when he drove in a manner that endangered everyone on the freeway I decided not to do that any more. I only wanted to find out where he worked to garnish his wages.

2. He accused me of calling him a thief to his employer.

After he came home with a _____ one day. I only called to verify employment.

I had reason th believe he was working under the table for cash money. When I called his employer his employer asked me my name and I told him. He immediately called me a nasty name and hung up on me. I then e-mailed his references on his website as to how unprofessional his boss was.

3. His third complaint said I lied to the _____ and had his license revoked.

This is not true. I had seen a public service announcement that if you are buying a vehicle you need to check and make there are no liens against it. I called them and asked them if I could put a lien on his pickup with a judgment from small claims court. They said yes. I went to the _____ and and gave them my of my judgment. The lady went to the back room _____ and came back and said they were sending it to the _____ dept. I then told her the _____ did not have anything to do with the damage to _____ She then said I know.

That same afternoon I explained to _____ that I had applied for a lien on her _____ pickup and I would sign off on it when I received my _____

When I received the notice his license was revoked I again called her and apologized and told her to call them up and explain that there was a mistake.

I said I would help anyway I could. I'm sure she remembers it.

FORMAL HEARING

My main complaint is the judge did not let me explain how the man's license was revoked. I have been accused of lying to the _____ and now it is on record. Mr _____ testified in his final rebuttal he does not have the money to pay me. When this all started all he had was his _____ Since then he has acquired _____ cars. One was a _____ he paid a neighbor _____ for. The _____ never got registered because he could not drive it. Having these people testify under oath does not mean anything to them. All they care about is getting out of paying a debt. I live next door the man and he just acquired another car last week. He has been _____ all week fixing it up. It is probably not in his name since it came out in court that I could request a debtor's exam.

I'm _____ and I'm on oxygen. I'm barely getting by on _____
If I had the money for a lawyer I would have one by now.
