Disposition of Complaint 18-004

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court commissioner violated her constitutional rights.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the commissioner engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the commissioner's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the commissioner did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

The fifth and fourteenth amendments to the United States Constitution each contain a due process clause. Due process deals with the administration of justice and thus the due process clause acts as a safeguard from arbitrary denial of life, liberty, or property by the government.

Locking me in some mental health facility, arbitrarily, based on false witness, false testimony, fraud and obstruction of justice? Against my will? Injecting me with pharmaceuticals to ingratiate individuals that I have absolutely no obligation to. You are absolutely part of the problem the world faces! I suggest you stay away from the courts, get out of this state and never return. Should you feel the need to ingratiate pharmaceutical companies, inject your own kind.

You facilitated my recent _____ and have forever cost me both physically and financially. You did not improve conditions for the _____ me, my family or the World. You are a disgrace by all accounts! Please know, I have no respect for your opinion, your education, your history or your associations. You are not a credible authority where I am concerned. In fact, I could say that I am more knowledgeable, more experienced, and more informed than you have ever been, or will ever be.

Don't you ever come anywhere near me or my children. I would also recommend that you stay away from others in my family and community as well. I assure you if my father were alive, you would be 10 feet underground where you belong.
