ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge was rude and biased against her.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. I'm attaching court statements of the judge saying how rude and bias he was and did towards me in court. waved his hand to the group as to say sit or shut up. And at one time when I was checking court date with the secretary hatch asked when office and she went out and said you leave my secretary alone. you got question you ask your with me and there asking about a court date on the with the judge set up. And was there for court. she said no court date today the lawyer and and I stood in his court he set that date, that's why we come there. That judge has been bias and rude to me since he got to. He was nicer in I told him I use to court, but he changed since and you have paper to show his vendetta toward me and my also I sent you earlier and these papers now. Also with a conflict through the prosecutor's office. he should have step down for conflict as he was asked.
