COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 18-147

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a justice of the peace improperly failed to disqualify himself from multiple protective order proceedings.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judicial officer engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judicial officer did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Art Hinshaw did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Dated: August 15, 2018

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on August 15, 2018.

This order may not be used as a basis for disqualification of a judge.

Plaintiff

works for a very close friend of judge took to this friend court to request an injunction against me for harassment. she even wrote the complaints this had against me. A day before same judge had signed another restraining order against we were watching my house and property not to be destroyed by they still did destroy my property. she got away with that and not enough happy she went to to get an order which he signed despite his conflict. He has a relationship with the plaintiff.

lots of people of this community know that he does whatever he's asked to do for

MR. Judge signed an order of harassment in behalf of. She filed an injunction in behalf of and her friend arrested. was the major contributor to on

He has a personal relationship of friendship with the plaintiff:

Within Judge signed/approved/order different injunctions against harassment against different persons in behalf of (copies attached)

has a clear conflict of interest, direct and monetary benefit should preclude from participating in her behalf.

When

went to his same

name and tried to obtain an order against the judge

So he can order to stay away from her friend but when it comes to protect her

He certainly goes out of his way to protect her and his friends. This are just some of the outrage things he is doing in our

Had a hearing today at I need the _____ to be removed. But that judge can not have an impartial decision because of the relationship he has with the plaintiff.
He should have recuse himself for an order in behalf of his close friend. and not only recusing when he was asked to remove it.
Hope you can investigate and not tolerate this kind of behavior in the Courts.
