

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

---

Disposition of Complaint 18-296

---

Judge:

---

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court commissioner violated his constitutional rights and lacked jurisdiction over him.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if a judicial officer engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of a judicial officer's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judicial officer did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Denise K. Aguilar did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

The Judge Violated my 5th, and 6th amendment by (A): Not letting me speak on my own behalf, and represent myself on "Whenever I opened my Mouth to Verbalize anything for the record, She"
Would abruptly cut me off, denying me my right, and talking
, and/or speaking over me because I had made the Court aware that I in fact was/am aware that they are operating under two Jurisdictions at the same time. Thanks to the defence Attorney of some kind of and or who was apparently appointed to me. This I had Not knowingly, voluntarily, or intentionally given/gave consent to/for.
