THE SUPREME COURT OF ARIZONA
January 26, 2018

In the Matter of:

R-17-0054

Supreme Court:

REPLY TO MOTION TO PERMIT
ADDITIONAL TIME FOR FILING
A RULE PETITION BY ARIZONA
RULES OF FAMILY LAW
PROCEDURE TASK FORCE ON ARFLP

Petitioner would like to reply to the Task Force concerning their motion and request as follows:

The Task Force states:

"There are at approximately 100 Family Law Rules. Some of the rules raise intricate issues that necessitated deliberations by workgroups and Task Force members at multiple meetings. In addition to restyling these rules, members have recommended a variety of organizational and [substantive changes].

"Despite more than [60 meetings] and earnest efforts to complete a petition to restyle the Family Law Rules, the Task Force is unable to meet the January 10, 2018, filing date set by A.O. 2016-131."

“[Additional time also would permit the Task Force to obtain input from interested stakeholders, as the administrative order directs, before filing a rule petition]”

Request

There were 12 meetings scheduled and posted, but 60 occurred.

1. Please provide dates, times and locations of the additional meetings, and where the information is posted for the interested stakeholders/public to be able to attend, as it appears they have met without public access, 48 times.
2. Please provide an email to submit stakeholder’s input electronically as an alternative to attending in person due to work or other responsibilities.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 30th day of January, 2018.
