ARIZONA CODE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION
Part 7: Administrative Office of the Courts
Chapter 2: Certification and Licensing Programs
Section 7-210: Limited License Legal Practitioner

A. Definitions. In addition to ACJA § 7-201(A), the following definitions apply:

“Board” means the Board of Nonlawyer Legal Service Providers.

“Experiential learning” means learning through a format such as an internship, externship or clinical experience during which students develop knowledge, skills, and values from direct experiences outside a traditional academic setting.

“Limited License Legal Practitioner” (“LLLP”) means an individual licensed pursuant to this section to provide legal services without the supervision of an attorney in the areas of law and within the scope of practice defined herein.

“Substantive Law-Related Experience” means the provision of legal services as a paralegal or paralegal student including, but not limited to, drafting pleadings, legal documents or correspondence, completing forms, preparing reports or charts, legal research, and interviewing clients or witnesses. Substantive law-related experience does not include routine clerical or administrative duties. Substantive law-related experience for licensure in landlord-tenant and debt collection includes, but is not limited to, the provision of legal services as a paralegal supervised by a licensed attorney or paralegal student in the areas defined by the board.

B. Applicability. This section applies to individuals who provide legal services within the exemption to the prohibition of the unauthorized practice of law set forth in Supreme Court Rule 31.3(e)(4) and this section. In order to qualify to provide legal services under the specified exemption pursuant to Rule 31.3(e)(4) and this section, limited license legal practitioners shall hold a valid license and perform their duties in accordance with subsection (F). A person shall not represent they are a limited license legal practitioner unless the person holds an active license as a limited license legal practitioner. This section is read in conjunction with ACJA § 7-201: General Requirements, and the Arizona Rules of Supreme Court governing the practice of law. In the event of any conflict between the Arizona Rules of Supreme Court, ACJA § 7-201, and ACJA § 7-210, the Rules of Supreme Court shall govern.

C. Purpose. The supreme court has inherent regulatory power over all persons providing legal services to the public, regardless of whether they are lawyers or nonlawyers. Accordingly, this section is intended to result in the effective administration of the limited license legal practitioner licensing program.

with the continuing education requirements, maintain documentation of completion of continuing education, and to submit the maintained documentation to the nonlawyer legal service provider program upon the request of the board or division staff.

- b. Upon request, each limited license legal practitioner shall provide any additional information required by the board or division staff when reviewing renewal applications and continuing education documentation.

J. Code of Conduct. This code of conduct is adopted by the supreme court to apply to all limited license legal practitioners in the State of Arizona. The purpose of this code of conduct is to establish rules of professional conduct and minimum standards for performance by limited license legal practitioners.

1. Ethics. Each limited license legal practitioner is bound by Supreme Court Rule 42, Arizona Rules of Professional Conduct in accordance with the following:
 - a. References to “lawyer(s)” are to be read as “limited license legal practitioner(s).”
 - b. References to “applicant” or “applicant for admission to the state bar” is to be read as applicant for a limited license legal practitioner license.
 - c. References to “admission to practice” or “admitted to practice” shall be read as licensed as an LLLP.
 - d. ER 5.5(a) through (b) applies to LLLPs. ER 5.5(c) through (h) are not applicable.
2. Professionalism. Each limited license legal practitioner shall adhere to Supreme Court Rule 41, except for the Oath of Admission to the Bar.
3. Trust Accounts. Each limited license legal practitioner shall adhere to Supreme Court Rule 43.
4. Insurance Disclosures. Each limited license legal practitioner shall adhere to Supreme Court Rule 32(c)(13).
5. Performance in Accordance with Law.
 - a. A limited license legal practitioner shall perform all duties and discharge all obligations in accordance with applicable laws, rules, or court orders.
 - b. A limited license legal practitioner shall not represent that the practitioner is authorized to practice law beyond the areas of practice and scope of practice as provided in subsections (F)(1) and (2).

06.22.20

- c. A limited license legal practitioner shall not use the designations “lawyer,” “attorney at law,” “counselor at law,” “Esq.,” or other equivalent words, the use of which is reasonably likely to induce others to believe the limited license legal practitioner is authorized to engage in the practice of law beyond that allowed by the practitioner’s license. Any communications concerning an LLLP’s services must identify the LLLP as being a limited license legal practitioner.
- d. A limited license legal practitioner shall not provide any kind of advice, opinion or recommendation to a client about possible legal rights, remedies, defenses, options, or strategies unless the practitioner has the license and subject matter area specific endorsement to do so.
- e. A limited license legal practitioner shall inform the client in writing that a limited license legal practitioner is not a lawyer and cannot provide any kind of advice, opinion or recommendation to a client about possible legal rights, remedies, defenses, options, or strategies beyond what the practitioner is specifically licensed to provide authorized services for.

K. Limited License Legal Practitioner and Client

- 1. In a civil action a limited license legal practitioner shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to the limited license legal practitioner, or advice given thereon in the course of professional employment. A limited license legal practitioner, licensed paralegal’s assistant, secretary, stenographer or clerk shall not, without the consent of their employer, be examined concerning any fact the knowledge of which was acquired in such capacity.
- 2. For purposes of subsection A, any communication is privileged between a limited license legal practitioner for a corporation, governmental entity, partnership, business, association or other similar entity or an employer and any employee, agent or member of the entity or employer regarding acts or omissions of or information obtained from the employee, agent or member if the communication is either:
 - a. For the purpose of providing legal advice to the entity or employer or to the employee, agent or member.
 - b. For the purpose of obtaining information in order to provide legal advice to the entity or employer or to the employee, agent or member.
- 3. The privilege defined in this section shall not be construed to allow the employee to be relieved of a duty to disclose the facts solely because they have been communicated to a limited license legal practitioner.
