Rule 9.12. Posting of non-published decisions

A judge of the Appeals Department of the Superior Court, on the judge's own motion or the motion of any party or request from a limited jurisdiction court judge, may direct that an opinion of the Appeals Department be posted on the Superior Court website. The opinion shall remain posted until the Presiding Judge or a judge of the Appeals Department directs that it be removed from the website. While such an opinion is posted, it may be deemed persuasive, but without binding precedential effect, and may be referenced in legal memoranda filed in appeals from limited jurisdiction courts to the Superior Court.
