Attorney for Amicus Curiae Direct Contact, LLC

Counsel for the Real Party in Interest has brought an issue to Amicus' attention regarding the factual recitations in Amicus' brief. To wit, Counsel for the Real Party in Interest questioned the assertion that Direct Contact's circulators filed a new affidavit for the Right to Reproductive Freedom Initiative.

Amicus wishes to clarify the factual assertions it made in its brief. When it started collecting on the initiative, Direct Contact's principal instructed circulators to complete new affidavits for uploading to the Secretary of State's circulator portal, even if they had already completed one for another initiative, and started collecting these affidavits for uploading. Once it became clear that there was no ability to upload these on the Secretary of State's portal, Direct Contact stopped requiring these from circulators and just had their circulators register on the portal. Direct Contact still has some of the paper affidavits that were collected from circulators but could not be uploaded to the website.

Amicus apologizes for any confusion created.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 21st day of August, 2022.
