Pursuant to Administrative Order No. 2020-25, the Supreme Court authorized a pilot program proposed by the Arizona Bar Foundation known as the Domestic Violence Legal Document Preparer Pilot Program (“DVLDP”). This program certifies individuals, meeting certain qualifications, to provide free assistance to domestic violence victims.

Administrative Order No. No. 2020-25 requires the Administrative Office of the Courts to develop and administer an examination testing the competence of individuals seeking certification. The examination has been developed, and a passing score must be established.

Therefore, pursuant to Administrative Order No. 2020-25,

IT IS DIRECTED that the passing score for the DVLDP examination is 70%.

Dated this 25th day of February, 2021.
