5. Role and Responsibilities of Professional and Occupational Boards.

a. Establishment. The supreme court shall establish a board for each profession or occupation regulated by the supreme court pursuant to this section and the applicable ACJA section.

b. Appointment of Members. Upon establishment of a board, the chief justice shall appoint members to initial varying terms of one, two and three years to encourage continuity of the board. Thereafter, all terms are for three years, unless otherwise noted in the applicable ACJA section. A member may continue to serve until the member's successor is duly appointed. The chief justice shall appoint the chair of each board who shall serve as chair no longer than three years, unless otherwise specified in the applicable ACJA section. If a vacancy occurs in a board member position, the chief justice shall fill the vacancy expeditiously in the manner provided for in the original appointment. The appointments shall provide geographical, gender and ethnic diversity and consist of members of the regulated profession or occupation, court staff, the public and other professionals pursuant to the applicable ACJA section. The chief justice may appoint members to serve successive terms. The members shall assist division staff in the recruitment of board members and in the recommendation to the chief justice regarding appointment of candidates to the board.
