If your mailing address changes, it must be reported in writing. A new notice of address change must be filed with the Committee for each change in your mailing address (even if a reported change is temporary and you are returning to a previous address). Important information will be sent to the most recent mailing or email address on file with this Committee concerning your eligibility to sit for the bar exam, exam schedules, character and fitness inquiries, bar exam results (mail only) and other admissions applications. Don't miss these important mailings by failing to inform the Committee of changes to your mailing or email address.

Use of this form will help to ensure that changes are appropriately noted, recorded, and properly dated.
