3. The personal representative is a national banking association, a holder of a banking permit under the laws of this state, a savings and loan association authorized to conduct trust business in this state, a title insurance company which is qualified to do business under the laws of this state, a trust company holding a certificate to engage in trust business from the superintendent of financial institutions or the public fiduciary.

4. The petition for formal or informal appointment alleges that the probable value of the entire estate will permit summary procedures

Division staff shall return any cash bond not forfeited within 120 days.

f. A bond may be either a surety or cash bond as follows:

If the bond is forfeited, division staff shall deposit the funds in the confidential intermediary and fiduciary fund established pursuant to A.R.S. § 8-135.

g. Bond Exemption. State and local governmental agencies and agency staff, including the office of the public fiduciary and the Arizona Department of Veterans’ Services, are not required to post the surety or cash bond.

b. In addition, A.R.S. § 14-5651(G) provides: “. . . The supreme court may exempt a fiduciary from the requirements of this section for good cause.”

c. Emergency Exemption. Any person or business entity seeking court appointment as a conservator, guardian, or personal representative may apply on the form prescribed by the supreme court for an emergency exemption from licensure based on the criteria set forth in this section and comply with this section by filing an application for exemption, on the approved form, with the clerk of the superior court in the county where the appointment is requested. For good cause shown, the presiding judge of the superior court or designated judicial officer may grant or deny the exemption under the following conditions:

   (a) Temporary appointment is effective for a period of up to 90 days. The presiding judge may grant one extension for a period of up to 90 days. The purpose of the temporary appointment is to allow the individual to seek and obtain licensure during this temporary appointment;
(b) The appointee shall apply for fiduciary licensure with the supreme court; and
(c) The appointee shall not receive any compensation in any form while the appointee is serving in the capacity of an emergency exempted fiduciary, except for reimbursement for reasonable expenses, subject to court approval.
(4) Within fifteen days of granting the exemption from licensure, the presiding judge or designated judicial officer shall forward to division staff a copy of the application for exemption, the petition and order granting the emergency appointment of guardian or conservator and the minute entry.

a. The principal of a business entity, the office of the public fiduciary, or the Arizona Department of Veterans’ Services shall annually file with the division staff, by June 30 of each year, a list of all licensed fiduciaries acting for or on behalf of the business entity, public fiduciary, or the Arizona Department of Veterans’ Services.

L. Continuing Education Policies.

1. Purpose.

   a. Court appointed fiduciaries have important responsibilities in serving vulnerable and elderly clients. Fiduciaries are required to demonstrate a basic level of competency to become licensed and practice in Arizona. Ongoing continuing education is one means to ensure a licensed fiduciary maintains continuing competence in the fiduciary field after licensure is obtained. It also provides opportunities for fiduciaries to keep abreast of changes in the fiduciary and legal professions and the Arizona judicial system.

   b. These policies are intended to provide direction to licensed fiduciaries, to ensure compliance with statutes, this section and ACJA § 7-201 regarding continuing education credits; and to provide for equitable application and enforcement of the continuing education requirements.

   a. All licensed fiduciaries shall complete a minimum of twenty hours of continuing education every two years. The continuing education requirements do not apply to fiduciary businesses. Fiduciaries may not bank or roll over continuing education hours from one renewal period to the next. Pursuant to subsection (G)(1), all licenses expire on May 31st each even numbered year.

   b. All licensed fiduciaries shall comply with these adopted policies regarding continuing education.

3. Responsibilities of Fiduciaries.

   a. It is the responsibility of each fiduciary to ensure compliance with the continuing education requirements. These responsibilities include maintaining documentation of completion of continuing education and submitting this documentation with the renewal application by the deadline date for renewal of licensure if requested to do so.

b. Upon request, each fiduciary shall provide any additional information required by the board or division staff when reviewing the application for renewal of licensure and continuing education applications and documentation.

c. Continuing education not recognized for credit upon board review does not relieve the fiduciary of the responsibility to complete the required hours of continuing education.

4. Authorized Continuing Education Activities.

a. Continuing education activity shall address the areas of proficiency, competency, and performance of a fiduciary and impart knowledge and understanding of the fiduciary profession, the Arizona judiciary, or the legal process. Continuing education shall increase the participant's understanding of the responsibilities of a fiduciary and the fiduciary’s impact on the judicial process and the public.

b. Continuing education activity shall include one or more of the following subjects:

(1) Guardianships;
(2) Conservatorships;
(3) Personal representatives;
(4) Trust administration;
(5) Power of attorney;
(6) Mental health;
(7) The Arizona court system including the state and federal constitution, branches of government, Arizona court jurisdiction and responsibilities and the Arizona tribal court system;
(8) The Arizona Revised Statutes, Arizona Rules of Court, this section, ACJA § 7-201, case law, administrative orders and current issues in the Arizona court system relevant to the fiduciary profession;
(9) The role and responsibilities of the fiduciary including, but not limited to, this section, ACJA § 7-201 and the code of conduct;
(10) Management issues including office practices, public relations and customer service, accounting, time management, human resources, financial planning and stress management; and
(11) Ethics for fiduciaries, including cooperation with lawyers, judges and fellow fiduciaries, professional attire, courtesy and impartiality to all litigants, information vs. legal advice and public relations. A fiduciary shall complete a minimum of three hours of ethics continuing education during each renewal cycle as part of the total required hours. The three hours of ethics must stand alone and may only be credited as ethics and not as a portion of the other seventeen hours of required continuing education.
c. Accredited Activities. Subject to the conditions specified in this policy, programs, seminars and courses of study offered or approved by the following entities are considered accredited continuing education activities:

(1) Fiduciary Certification Program (FCP);
(2) The National Guardianship Association (NGA);
(3) Arizona Fiduciaries Association (AFA);
(4) National Association of Court Management (NACM);
(5) State Bar of Arizona, Probate Law and Trust Section;
(6) State Bar of Arizona, Mental Health and Elder Law Section;
(7) National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA);
(8) National Association of Geriatric Care Managers (NAGCM);
(9) National College of Probate Judges; and
(10) National Association of Social Workers (NASW).

d. Conferences. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for attendance at a conference relevant to the fiduciary profession. Conference attendance may satisfy 100 per cent of the continuing education credits required during the renewal cycle, if the conference is sponsored by organizations or entities listed in subsection (L)(4)(c). Introductory remarks, breaks, meals, business meetings and general sessions of a conference do not qualify as continuing education hours. The fiduciary shall obtain documentation of the specific sessions of the conference attended.

e. University, College and Other Educational Institution Courses. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for completing a course provided by a university, college or other accredited educational institution with a grade of "C" or better or a "pass" on a pass/fail system. Credit is awarded by multiplying the number of credit hours awarded by the educational institution by two. However, the maximum continuing education credits for completion of such courses shall not exceed 50 percent of the total number of continuing education hours required for the renewal period.

f. Authoring or Coauthoring Articles. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for authoring or coauthoring an article directly related to the fiduciary profession and published in a state or nationally recognized professional journal relevant to the fiduciary profession or law, if the article is a minimum of 1,000 words in length. A fiduciary may earn a maximum of one hour of continuing education credit for authoring an article or articles in any one renewal period. A fiduciary shall not receive credit for the same article published in more than one publication or republished in the same publication in later editions.

g. Self Study. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for self study, including correspondence courses, procedure manuals, video and audio tapes, on-line computer seminars, and other methods of independent learning. The self study shall have accompanying written materials. A fiduciary shall not receive credit for simply reading books, seminar materials or other printed materials. A fiduciary may receive a maximum of five continuing education credits for self study in any one renewal period. A fiduciary shall not use self study as the qualifying method for the three hours of ethics credit during the renewal cycle. A fiduciary shall document the continuing education credit for self study on a form approved and provided by the board.

h. Serving as Faculty. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for serving as an instructor, speaker, faculty, or panel member of a continuing education seminar directly related to the fiduciary profession. The fiduciary may receive credit for the actual presentation time, plus actual preparation time up to two hours for each hour of presentation time. A fiduciary may receive a maximum of ten hours of continuing education credit for serving as faculty in any renewal period; however, a fiduciary may not receive credit for presenting a program repeatedly throughout the renewal period. A fiduciary may receive continuing education credit for actual presentation time for duplicate programs presented in subsequent renewal periods; however, a fiduciary shall not receive continuing education credit for preparation time for those duplicated programs.

i. Mentoring Activities. A fiduciary shall not receive credit for mentoring activities.

5. Minimum Time. Each continuing education activity shall consist of at least 30 minutes of “actual clock time” spent by a registrant in actual attendance at and completion of an approved continuing education activity. “Actual clock time” is the total hours attended, minus the time spent for introductory remarks, breaks, meals, and business meetings. After completion of the initial 30 minutes of continuing education activity, a fiduciary may receive credit in fifteen minute increments. A fiduciary shall not use additional earned continuing education credits for subsequent renewal periods.

   a. The following activities shall not qualify for continuing education credit:

      (1) Programs completed for qualification for initial licensure;
      (2) Programs with a primary focus on teaching nonverbal skills not directly related to the fiduciary profession;
      (3) Attendance or participation at professional or association business meetings, general sessions, elections, policymaking sessions or program orientation;
      (4) Serving on committees or councils or as an officer in a professional organization;
      (5) Activities completed as required by the board as part of disciplinary action;
      (6) Any activity completed as ordered by a judicial officer; and
      (7) Mentoring activities where the fiduciary serves as a mentor.

   b. Repeat of an Activity. Generally, a fiduciary may not receive credit for repeating an activity within the same renewal period. Exceptions are permissible if the activity is directly related to the fiduciary profession and duplication of the continuing education activity will enhance the fiduciary’s knowledge, skill and competency.
c. Attendance. A fiduciary shall not request and shall not receive credit if the fiduciary attends part, but not all of the provided activity.

7. Documentation of Attendance or Completion. When attending or completing a continuing education activity, a fiduciary shall obtain documentation of attendance or completion from the sponsoring entity. At a minimum, this documentation shall include the:

a. Name of the sponsor;

b. Name of the participant;

c. Topic of the subject matter;

d. Number of hours actually attended or the number of credit hours awarded by the sponsoring entity;

e. Date and place of the program;

f. Signature of the sponsor, or documentation representing an official document of the sponsoring entity; for example, a college grade report, etc.; and

g. Signature of the fiduciary, either in the space specifically provided on the form for this purpose, or the fiduciary may sign across the documentation (for example, the college grade report) to indicate attendance and completion of the activity.

8. Compliance and Non-Compliance.

a. Affidavit of Compliance. A fiduciary shall submit an affidavit of continuing education compliance with the application for renewal of licensure, demonstrating full compliance with the continuing education requirements. The fiduciary shall submit the affidavit on a form provided by division staff and shall list the continuing education attended, hours of credit for each session and total hours of credit. Division staff or the board shall review continuing education credits at the time of submission of the renewal application and shall:

(1) Accept the continuing education credit as submitted;
(2) Accept part, but not all of the continuing education credit;
(3) Require additional information from the fiduciary before making a decision; or
(4) Deny the continuing education credit.

b. Proration of Continuing Education. A fiduciary initially licensed between June 1st of the second year and December 31st of the second year of the renewal cycle shall complete a total of ten hours of continuing education credit for that first licensure period, including at least two hours of ethics. A fiduciary initially licensed between December 31st and March 31st of the second year of the renewal cycle shall complete five hours of continuing education credit for that first licensure period, including at least one hour of ethics. In subsequent licensure periods, the fiduciary shall meet the twenty hour requirement. This proration of continuing education credits does not apply to a fiduciary who previously held licensure, allowed the licensure to lapse and subsequently applied for and was granted licensure partway through the renewal period. In that case, the fiduciary is subject to the full twenty hour continuing education requirement.

c. Extension or Waiver of Continuing Education Requirements. A fiduciary seeking renewal of licensure who has not fully complied with the continuing education requirements may request an extension or waiver of the continuing education requirements under the following conditions:

(1) The fiduciary submits a notarized statement to the board, explaining the facts regarding non-compliance and requesting an extension or waiver of the requirements.

(2) The board shall determine whether extenuating circumstances exist. In reviewing the request, the board shall consider if the fiduciary has been unable to devote sufficient hours to fulfill the continuing education requirements because of:
   (a) Full-time service in the armed forces of the United States during a substantial part of the renewal period;
   (b) An incapacitating illness documented by a statement from a currently licensed physician;
   (c) A physical inability, documented by a statement from a currently licensed physician, for the fiduciary to travel to the sites of continuing education programs;
   (d) Being retired from the fiduciary profession and not performing any fiduciary services; or
   (e) Any other special circumstances the board determines appropriate.

(3) A fiduciary whose license has been restricted, suspended, or revoked by the board is not eligible to request a waiver or extension.

d. Random Audits of Continuing Education Compliance. During each renewal review period the board shall request division staff to randomly specify a number of fiduciaries to demonstrate continuing education requirement compliance through submission of proof of continuing education participation. Refusal or failure to respond to the request for continuing education compliance audit documentation may result in denial of renewal of licensure or disciplinary action pursuant to ACJA § 7-201(H) and this section.

e. A fiduciary who fails to meet the continuing education requirement pursuant to subsection (G)(2), falsifies continuing education documents, or willfully misrepresents continuing education activities and attendance at continuing education activities is subject to any or all of the following actions:
(1) Payment of a delinquent continuing education fee;
(2) Denial of renewal of licensure; and
(3) Disciplinary action pursuant to ACJA § 7-201(H) and this section.

a. Upon a review of continuing education documentation and any applicable additional information requested, the board may:

(1) Recognize fiduciary compliance with the continuing education requirement;
(2) Require additional information from the fiduciary seeking renewal before making a decision;
(3) Recognize partial compliance with the requirement and order remedial measures;
or
(4) Enter a finding of non-compliance.

b. Division staff shall notify the fiduciary, in writing, within ten days of the board’s decision. A fiduciary may appeal the decision of the board by submitting a written request for review to division staff within fifteen days of the date of the notice of the board’s decision. The fiduciary may request to appear before the board at the next available regularly scheduled board meeting.

c. The license of a fiduciary who timely appeals a decision by the board regarding continuing education shall remain in effect until a final decision is made by the board.

d. The board shall make the decision on the appeal in writing. The decision is final and binding.

10. In addition to the provisions of this subsection, the board may require a fiduciary who allows his or her license to lapse or who has been in an inactive status to provide documentation of completion of the required number of continuing education credits for the prior licensure period.
