

JUDICIAL BRANCH NEWS

ARIZONA SUPREME COURT

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS

April 10, 2008

Employees Honored by Judicial Staff Education Committee

The Judicial Staff Education Committee (JSEC) honored seven Arizona Judicial Branch employees at the 2007 Trainer Excellence Awards Presentation on April 7, 2008, at the Arizona State Courts Building in Phoenix. These individuals were recognized for demonstrating dedication and commitment to excellence in teaching and promoting judicial continuing education in Arizona.

2007 Trainer Excellence Award Winners – Front Row (left to right): Stephanie Bradley, Kathy Daniels, Louise Beitel, and Betsy Wraight. Back Row (left to right): Michael Malone and Annie Crossland. Not present: Jennifer Jones.

The award recipients are:

- Louise Beitel, Superior Court in Pima County;
- Stephanie Bradley, Maricopa County Adult Probation Department;
- Annie Crossland, Mesa Municipal Court;
- Kathy Daniels, Maricopa County Adult Probation Department;
- Jennifer Jones, Administrative Office of the Courts;
- Michael Malone, Superior Court in Pinal County; and
- Betsy Wraight, Maricopa County Juvenile Probation Department.

Beitel was also named ‘Trainer of the Year’ by Becky Williams, JSEC Chair, and the Honorable Roxanne Song Ong, Chair of the Committee on Judicial Education and Training.

“She’s been making a difference through education for many years,” said Judge Song Ong, based on her nomination form. “In addition to Louise’s ability to create outstanding presentations and training materials, she is an excellent trainer. She is truly a model and mentor to other court employees.”

Eighty-five Trainer Excellence Awards have been presented to outstanding trainers and training teams throughout Arizona’s court system since the awards were established in 2000.

Each year, more than 8,726 trainings are provided to judicial staff statewide to ensure employees have quality and relevant educational opportunities that maintain a highly trained workforce. For more information about the Judicial Staff Education Committee, go to <http://supreme8/ed/jsec/aboutjsec.htm>.