

2nd QUARTER CLUB READ

Facilitated by Beth Miller, Courtroom Clerk, Clerk's Office

Another Session is planned for the Juvenile Training Center—TBA SOON!

A book club centered on Law and Literature for court employees & Sponsored by JCCE

Book Club participation counts for COJET credit, per ACJA §1-302.

Members will:

1. Earn COJET credits. Commit to active participation for a given book.
2. Acquire books themselves.
3. Do the reading on time and participate in discussions (be an active participant).
4. Write down answers/opinions/observations on the question sheet provided and turn in to the club facilitator at the second meeting to receive facilitated class credit.
5. Suggest future books for the club.

The book for the second quarter is Stephen Downing is Dead.

Author: Dan Goss Anderson, former Pima County Legal Defender, in Tucson, Arizona.

Cleverly written, this mystery grips the reader with a perfect blend of predictability and the element of surprise.

Books are not provided. Check out used books in town, online or share books or borrow the book from the library or a friend. Available on Kindle; not available on Nook.

FIRST MEETING: *****MEET THE AUTHOR!!*******

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 2014

TIME: 12:10 PM TO 12:55 PM-----please don't be late!

WHERE: Room #920

At this meeting, the facilitator will distribute copies of the learning objectives and discussion questions for the book

SECOND MEETING: WHEN: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 2014

TIME: 12:10 PM TO 12:55 PM-----please don't be late!

WHERE: Room #920

Calculating COJET credits

1. Reading time:  $\frac{1}{2}$  credit per 30 pages, non-facilitated credit. (1-302, E.5a.)
2. Discussion time: Actual group meeting time, facilitated credit. ETHICS
3. For facilitators: Two-for-one for the time facilitated, reading time the same as for members. (1-302, E.6.b)
4. For leaders (who develop lesson plans): up to four credit hours in a calendar year. (1-302, E.6.c)

In order to get COJET credit, members will sign in to each discussion meeting and indicate the number of pages they have read in the appropriate block on the sign-in sheet.