Rule 37. Miscellaneous Provisions Relating to Admissions.

(a) - (c) [No change in text.]

(d) Refund of Fees.

1. An applicant who submits an application for admission by Arizona uniform bar examination and who has paid the fees required by these rules and thereafter withdraws the application or fails to appear for the examination applied for, shall be entitled to a partial refund or credit of the fees paid, as established by the Court, provided the applicant notifies the Committee in writing no later than the filing deadline for that examination as set by the Court. If an applicant receives approval pursuant to Rule 35(c)(3) on or after the filing deadline for the examination, the applicant must submit a written request to withdraw within five calendar days of receipt of approval by the Committee to be entitled to a partial refund. No part of the fees paid to the National Conference of Bar Examiners is refundable.

2. [No change in text.]
