Arizona Rules of Procedure for Civil Traffic and Civil Boating Violations

Rule 10. Entry of Plea; Failure to Appear

(a) The defendant may admit responsibility by appearing in person, or by submitting a form or a statement signed by the defendant admitting the allegations of the complaint. The defendant shall, at the same time, tender the civil sanction listed in the court's deposit schedule for the civil traffic violation(s). The court may extend the time for paying the civil sanction if the defendant:

(1) admits responsibility prior to the defendant's court appearance date, and

(2) declares that immediate payment of the full civil sanction would constitute an undue economic burden on the defendant.
