O R D E R

Applicant filed a petition for review seeking an extension of the five year requirement for admission to the practice of law after sitting for the bar examination under Rule 37(a), Rules of the Supreme Court. Applicant also challenges the Committee on Character and Fitness' findings in its original recommendation for conditional admission and objects to the additional terms being proposed by the Committee. The Committee on Character and Fitness filed a response to the petition. Upon consideration of the petition for review and response,

IT IS ORDERED that Applicant's request to extend the period for admission in Rule 37(a) is granted. The time period for Applicant's admission shall be extended for six months from the date of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED denying review of the remaining issues. On February 12, 2013, the Court granted review and denied the Committee's recommendation of conditional admission. The terms of that recommendation are no longer before the Court or subject to review. Further, the Committee's proposed terms of conditional admission are not subject to review under Rule 36(g).

DATED this _____ day of July, 2013.
