

Arizona Supreme Court Clerk's Office Remains Open During COVID-19 Public Health Emergency

The Supreme Court Clerk's Office remains open for business during the COVID-19 pandemic and your safety and the safety of our employees is a priority. There are a number of ways the public can conduct court business without entering the building to ensure everyone's safety.

- 1) The Rules requiring attorneys to file electronically through TurboCourt (www.turbocourt.com) remain in effect.

- 2) Self-represented litigants may file electronically through TurboCourt (fees apply) or may file by sending filings through the U.S.
Mail to: Supreme Court Clerk's Office, 1501 W. Washington, Suite 402, Phoenix, AZ 85007

- 3) Fee Waiver/Deferral Applications which are generally filed at the front counter or through the mail may be filed electronically using TurboCourt during this public health emergency.

- 4) If you have questions, please contact the Supreme Court Clerk's Office at 602.452.3396 or email scclerk@courts.az.gov. (Please note that filings will not be accepted through email).

- 5) Electronic copies of non-sensitive documents may be requested through the scclerk@courts.az.gov email account.

- 6) Please visit the Supreme Court Clerk's Office website for information regarding case status.

- 7) If you must come to the clerk's office, please practice social distancing and consider wearing a mask. If a person is standing at the counter, please wait outside the door until that person exits the area.

- 8) Please call ahead if you need to use the public viewing room, again to maintain social distancing and to provide an opportunity for the building housekeeping staff to sanitize the room between users.
