On February 26, 2008, Administrative Order No. 2008-22 was entered establishing the Committee for the Quadrennial Review of the Child Support Guidelines. Under subsequent Administrative Order No. 2009-46, the terms of the members previously appointed were respectively extended to December 31, 2009.

In fulfillment of the Committee's charge, the Committee's Final Report and Recommendations was approved by the Arizona Judicial Council (AJC) on March 25, 2010. The AJC motion approving the Committee's work also authorized its members to continue to make clarifying changes to the language and to adjust the guidelines as necessary to allow for incorporation of the specific revisions agreed upon at their March meeting. The AJC further directed these revisions, along with any other recommended changes to the guidelines, be brought back to the AJC for review at the June meeting.

Therefore, after due consideration,

IT IS ORDERED that the Committee for the Quadrennial Review of the Child Support Guidelines is extended to June 30, 2010. The Committee shall submit a report of its on-going work and any substantive recommendations to the Arizona Judicial Council at the Council's June 2010 meeting.

Dated this 14th day of April, 2010.
