Pursuant to the Arizona Code of Judicial Administration § 1-201(E), the Chief Justice may adopt emergency administrative code proposals and technical changes in existing code sections by administrative order without prior distribution for comment and action by the Arizona Judicial Council.

Therefore, pursuant to Article VI, Section 3, of the Arizona Constitution,

IT IS ORDERED that Arizona Code of Judicial Administration § 5-207 is amended as indicated on the attached document. All other provisions of § 5-207 remain unchanged and in effect.

Dated this 21st day of December, 2016.

SCOTT BALES
Chief Justice

ARIZONA CODE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION
Part 5: Court Operations
Chapter 2: Programs and Standards
Section 5-207: Orders of Protection and Injunctions Against Harassment

The attached forms are adopted for mandatory use by all Arizona courts for matters concerning orders of protection and injunctions against harassment in domestic violence cases. All Arizona courts must use only those forms approved by the administrative director in matters concerning domestic violence orders of protection, injunctions against harassment, and injunctions against workplace harassment. Individual court identification information (name, address, and two assigned court identification numbers) ~~shall~~ must appear at the top of each form, except for the plaintiff's guide sheet and the defendant's guide sheet. Courts may make technical formatting changes (for example, number of pages, line and margin spacing, and font size), use multi-part, carbonless paper, and develop non-English translations. Any other proposed alterations to or deviations from the approved forms, including any text changes, ~~shall~~ must be submitted to the administrative director for approval prior to use. The supreme court authorizes the administrative director to approve or modify the forms in response to changes in state or federal laws or procedures and make other necessary administrative amendments or corrections.
