The Chief Justice established the Attorney Regulation Advisory Committee to review rules governing attorney examination, admissions, reinstatement, and the disability and disciplinary process. Initially, members were appointed for fixed, staggered terms of either one (1), two (2) or three (3) years, with terms thereafter for three (3) years.

Attorney members Alan P. Bayham, Jr., Pamela Treadwell-Rubin, and Patricia A. Sallen and public member Dr. Ronald R. Watson were initially appointed to the Committee for a one-year term via Administrative Order No. 2011-44. Their terms expire on May 4, 2012. Each of these members is eligible for and is seeking reappointment to the Committee for a full three-year term. To provide continuity with other Supreme Court committees, the expiration date of these new terms and of all future reappointments and new appointments to the Attorney Regulation Advisory Committee will be moved to June 30 of the applicable year. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED reappointing the following members to the Attorney Regulation Advisory Committee for three-year terms as set out below.
