A description of the investigative process may be found at this link.

Read all of the following instructions carefully before proceeding.

Navigation Instructions

Disclosure:

The Committee expects you to spend the time necessary to provide accurate and complete answers. You are required to swear/affirm before a notary public that this document is true and complete in all respects, and you will be held in strict compliance with this declaration.

The Committee is required by Supreme Court Rule to assess your diligence. You must complete the research necessary to answer each question. Failure to strictly comply with the requirements of the Character Report will reflect negatively upon you, and will result in substantial delay to, or potential denial of, your admission to the practice of law.

In accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct, an applicant for admission shall not (a) knowingly make a false statement of material fact; or (b) fail to disclose a fact necessary to correct a misapprehension known by the person to have arisen in the matter, or knowingly fail to respond to a lawful demand for information from an admissions or disciplinary authority.

Updates and amendments:

During the investigation, you may be asked for additional information or clarification. If this is necessary, the investigation may be significantly prolonged. If you do not respond within thirty days, the investigation will be abandoned until your written response is received.

You are required to advise the Committee of all changes to your Application and/or Character Report occurring from the time of filing until your date of admission.

Mailing requirements:

Within five business days of your electronic submission, the following hard copies must be received in our office (submitted together in a single mailing):

All other documents that you have not uploaded

Arizona Supreme Court
Committee on Character and Fitness

Timing:

There is no precise time period for processing any file, as every applicant's background is unique. The initial investigation will take a minimum of three months, followed by file assessment by members of the Committee.

The investigation is open and ongoing until at least such time that you are successful on the attorney admission examination. No status will be provided prior to that date, and then only if the Committee has been afforded the time required to complete the initial investigation.

Avoid common errors in completing the Character Report:

Failure to heed the instructions and exact requirements will result in delays in the investigation.

- 1) Read every question thoroughly, and answer it completely.
- 2) Provide complete and current addresses for all individuals and entities listed.
- 3) Where required by the question, provide information in chronological order by start date.
- 4) Personal and legal references may not be listed in any other part of your Character Report.
- 5) Provide all documents required by the Character Report. If an official agency (for example law enforcement; court, regulatory board, etc.) advises you that the required documents are not available, you must obtain an official written notice from them that specifically states the documents are unavailable and the reason(s) why (for example, the documents are purged after a given number of years).
- 6) Do not submit a Character Report that is incomplete in any respect and expect to amend it at a later date. The Character Report must be complete at the time of submission.

If there are matters pending at the time you submit your Character Report (for example, a civil matter), you may submit the Character Report and provide updates as they occur.

Tips for Completing the Character Report:

Employment history: You may contact the Social Security Administration (telephone 800-772-1213; website ssa.gov) for a report of your earnings history. You may then contact employers listed for the information required.

Previous employer is out of business: You must provide a verifying reference who can affirm that employment. (On the Experience page, you will be asked for an “experience verification source”; you should choose “verifying reference”, and provide contact information for that person.)

Self-employment: You must provide a verifying reference who can affirm that employment. (On the Experience page, you will be asked for an “experience verification source”; you should choose “verifying reference”, and provide contact information for that person.)

Traffic Citations: Not all traffic citations will appear on your driving record(s). It is your responsibility to contact local or regional law enforcement to obtain information about citations.

References: Select personal and legal references that are willing to provide information to the Committee, and will do so in a timely manner.

Other Information:

The Committee participates in the National Conference of Bar Examiners' national databank which cross-checks applicants to determine if they have filed applications in other jurisdictions.

The Committee independently obtains and reviews credit reports concerning all applicants.

The provision of your social security number is voluntary, pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974. However, provision of your social security number assists in expediting the character review process. Your social security number will be used for purposes of investigation and verification, to avoid errors of identity which might cause issues and delays in the certification and licensure process. You must notify us in writing, received within five business days of your electronic submission, if you wish to restrict the use of your social security number.
