Re:

To whom it may concern:

I am requesting a formal investigation be initiated and disciplinary action be taken against Judge [redacted] of the [redacted] County Superior Court [redacted]. This request is based on [redacted] conduct during the sentencing phase of the cases listed above on [redacted].

During [redacted] questioning of the defendant, [redacted], in open court, and on the record, [redacted]

A) Denied the defendant [redacted] access to counsel

CJC-06-035

B) Conducted an interrogation of defendant [redacted] without counsel present on a domestic matter over which [redacted] had no jurisdiction.

C) [redacted] threatened and intimidated the defendant [redacted] into providing an answer in favor of the victim, on a domestic matter, again, not in [redacted] jurisdiction

D) [redacted] threatened to interfere in the defendant's domestic disputes by offering to confer with the judge in that case.

In doing all of the above, [redacted]

A) Willfully and intentionally violated [redacted] rights guaranteed by the US Constitution; and

B) Committed willful misconduct by threatening defendant [redacted] on a domestic matter outside of the criminal issue being adjudicated.

C) Committed or threatened to commit judicial interference in a domestic matter by the criminal court judge.

Therefore, a Petition for Post Conviction Relief, pursuant to Rule 32 will be submitted. We will seek to have the sentencing in the above matters set aside under 32.1(b) and 32.1(c). We will also seek to have [redacted] recused, and will ask the court to consider a change of venue to limit [redacted] interference. This is necessary since [redacted] threatened interference in the domestic issue and may surely exercise his influence in the [redacted] court as well.

Upon verification of the above complaint, we are asking the Bar to initiate action against [redacted] for his unprofessional and unethical conduct. We are also seeking a written apology from [redacted] for his deliberate violation of [redacted] constitutional rights and other egregious conduct.

Sincerely

[redacted]
