that he is lying when I got on the stand it seem like she didn't care what I had to say I went to the library and read the law books and took notes
it seem like that the law didn't matter to her when I brought up my ex's mother still getting her dead husband's

(Attach additional sheets as needed)

Social Security checks and I pointed out that it is against the law Judge [redacted] didn't care I said it about 2 or 3 times

When I brought up when I was put out on the streets without money or a place to live.

It seems that Judge [redacted] care less. she had stated that she don't doubt that I need Social Maintenance my ex makes ~~enough~~ enough to pay that's not in any of her le. criteria I try to figure out what they are and no one knows

The State Attorney General office says it seems that would be the just

I can't afford to get a lawyer to appeal this.

Because of her decision if it wasn't for a close friend I would still be out on the street which I would have to pay friend back

I wondering how many women Judge [redacted] has really put out on the streets

She doesn't care about the law because I took quotes from the law books that didn't matter either wonder why [redacted] wins so many cases now I know

I kept hearing I would lose. a lot of people I said I had the law on my side all of them said the law doesn't matter to her well they were right

Please help

When I saw judge [redacted] for my divorce/ custody hearings in [redacted] my husband (at the time) told her he was not on his pills for Schizophrenia and mentally incompetent of holding a job but was capable of being a parent. This to me was asinine.

I was not allowed to make any statements or defend myself at all against what was said about me.

I went back to court again for not being allowed ordered visitation and she did nothing about it.

This to me was very unfair, the whole situation →

was.

I don't believe
she used her robe
as judge right. She continuously abused
it.
