ORDER

The commission reviewed the complaint filed in this matter and found no ethical misconduct on the part of the judge. The complainant alleged that a pro tem judge sentenced him in city court while simultaneously representing him as a lawyer in superior court. The record in this case indicates that the judge advised the parties of the potential conflict. Prior to presiding over the hearing, both parties waived any conflict.

The complaint is dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Dated: February 20, 2007.

FOR THE COMMISSION

Re: Judge Pro Temp [Redacted]

Dear Commission

November 27, 2006

I [Redacted] received minute entry dated [Redacted] concerning both

[Redacted]

in which states that Judge [Redacted]
reported [Redacted] actions to your office.

I have yet to receive any confirmation about this matter, being that I am the damaged party, I want to be informed concerning this issue.

[Redacted] conduct has caused me and my case irreparable harm, therefore I want to testify, supply information and make sure that this Commission holds [Redacted] responsible.

for his egregious and wanton conduct.

Judge Pro Temp [redacted], greed and subordination of My Constitutional Rights is the status quo in ARIZONA when a judge or attorney believes that accused educational and socioeconomic status doesn't warrant being advised of their rights.

I will not allow anyone to run roughshod over my Constitutional Rights and will hold any and all that do accountable, by any means necessary via Federal Tort or 42 U.S.C. § 1983

I look forward to your response within (72) hours and would like this matter dealt with quickly, professionally, & honestly. NOT by the Good ol' boy tactics that will condone [redacted] conduct.

Since I had to force [redacted] to report [redacted] had knowledge of [redacted] misconduct as early as [redacted] and did NOTHING!!! [redacted]

respectfully submitted
